Skokie, IL (PRWeb) January 7, 2009 -- The Evangelical Lutheran Good Samaritan Society (Sioux Falls, SD) has selected Upstairs Solutions, LTC as the primary inservice education developer of online courses for their employee etraining. The Good Samaritan Society is the nation's largest not-for-profit provider of skilled nursing, home health and senior housing services, with over 230 facilities across the USA.

According to Neal Eddy, Vice President of Learning and Strategic Integration at Good Samaritan, "We selected Upstairs Solutions because of their leadership role in elearning for the senior industry. Their courses are well-designed, covering a wide range of topics and featuring interactive sessions which engage the learner and provide measurement of learning through post-tests."

Good Samaritan is utilizing over 40 courses from the Upstairs Solutions library in 2009 to cover the majority of federally required inservice training topics as well as a number of courses to enhance staff knowledge and skills. Custom online learning courses are also in development by Upstairs Solutions to meet other unique needs of the 20,000-plus staff members at Good Samaritan.

Tamar Abell, MA, CCC-SLP, LNHA is Principal of Upstairs Solutions and a third generation owner of several long term care facilities. "We are so pleased to partner with Good Samaritan because they are the leader in providing services to the eldercare community. Good Samaritan shares our philosophy of excellence in service and to improving the quality of life and care of seniors."
